About the Magazine

Diary of Contemporary Ethnography (JCE), distributed every other month, is a worldwide and interdisciplinary gathering for research utilizing ethnographic strategies to look at human conduct in regular settings. JCE brings you applicable material that inspects an expansive range of social associations and practices - in subcultures, societies, associations, and social orders - from an assortment of scholarly teaches including, yet not restricted to, Anthropology, Communications, Criminal Justice, Education, Health Studies, Management, Marketing, and Sociology.
