About the Magazine

Welcome to Earthmovers, the UK and Ireland's premier magazine for those with an interest in plant and construction machinery.

Launched over 15 years ago, Earthmovers is the most talked-about and highly influential machinery title in the industry. Aimed at professional owners and operators, every issue of Earthmovers brings you a balanced and informative view of the ever-changing world of modern construction equipment. Unbiased and independent, Earthmovers is the reliable source of objective opinion and unrivalled reporting from the name you can trust! From new product launches and first drives to emerging trends and operators' opinions, it's all here, month in, month out, written by industry experts with mud on their boots

Earthmovers is the best place to find out what's happening in the industry, how the latest equipment is performing on site, and who's getting the jobs and why. It all helps you to make better informed decisions – and in this business, that's so important. So, if Earthmovers' readers think the content is good enough to pay for, can YOU afford to miss it?
