About the Magazine

CURRICULUM magazine, which commenced publication from December 2010 in India. It is conceived to be a fortnightly magazine with national coverage targeted at various communities involved in a rapidly expanding education sector in India. As of now, it is being published monthly on every 16th of the Month and will continue to be so for some more time. The magazine as a truly aspiring media leader in the education domain has a 360 degree approach and covers all sub-sectors from school education to higher and professional education to policy issues, etc. As a library subscription and otherwise, Curriculum Magazine is targeted at senior secondary students and up, teachers, school managements' & principals, higher & professional institutions, educationists, policy makers and other stakeholders and community of service providers.
