About the Magazine

The International Journal of Electronics Engineering is a peer-reviewed journal. Many factors are taken into account when evaluating journals for coverage, ranging from the qualitative to the quantitative. The journal's basic publishing standards, its editorial content, the international diversity of its authorship, and the citation data associated with it are all considered. No one factor is considered in isolation, but by combining and interrelating the data, the editor is able to determine the journal's overall strengths and weaknesses. The publication house allocates Impact Factor to selected journals on the basis of their citation and above mentioned parameters
